INSTITUTE
(Growth, Support, Thought)

Since 2007

In the name of God, The Almighty

Introduction

Founded in 2007 in Tehran, Rahman is a Non-profit and Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) aiming at social charitable activities with a scientific and cultural approach.

Significance

Every society is confronted various kinds of social challenges and vulnerabilities ; our society suffers a wider range of social problems due to its transitory phase and the occurrence of great social, economic, cultural, and political changes in a short period of time. Ethical and social issues such as brain drain, loosening family ties, increase of hypocrisy, lying, flattery, mistrust in the future, and hopelessness deeply threaten our society. In addition, some social problems like poverty, addiction, robbery, rape, prostitution, divorce and other delinquencies dangerously worsen the existing situation. All these problems together result in the diminishing personal as well as social capacities and potentials on the part of members of the society.

Recent studies on the causes and the backgrounds show that non-governmental institutions have a main role in the improvement of cultural and social situation. Nevertheless, non-governmental organizations can take preventive actions concerning social problems. Rahman institution has scheduled its activities within such a framework.
